COUNTRY NEWS.

Wexford, Oct. 11. Last Saturday Night two Highwaysmen that were taken about Broadway Hills were committed to our Castle, one of whom has made an ample Discovery of his Accomplices. 'Tis said one was concern'd in apprehending them was so wounded by the Villains that he is since dead. Two others were apprehended Yesterday are now under Examination.

This being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, the same was usher'd in with Ringing of Bells. Norwich, Oct. 13. Thursday last being his Majesty's Coronation, the Morning was usher'd in by Ringing of Bells, &c. The Right Worshipful the Mayor and his Council went to the Cathedral in their Formalities, and read an excellent Sermon preach'd by the Rev. Mr. Kingsley of Yarmouth; after which the Mayor, the two Sheriffs made elegant Entertainments for their Friends in Honour of the Day.

Last Night there was a large Bonfire in the Market-place, and about Seven o'Clock the Mayor, Justice of our worthy Representative, and most of the Gentlemen went to the Bonfire, where they drank the Healths of the King, Prince and Princesses of Wales, and all the Royal Family, Sir Robert Walpole, &c. after which the Mayor invited the Gentlemen to the Hall in the Market-place, where they drank a great many other Healths, and pass'd the Night with Joy and Pleasure.

Last Monday the Rev. Mr. Fromanteel was instituted by the Lord Bishop of this Diocese into the Living of Colthorpe: And the same Day the Rev. Mr. Freeman was instituted into the Living of Rackenham the Greater and the Lesser.

Bristol, Oct. 13. Monday last his Grace the Duke of Marlborough and General Churchill review'd the Regiment of Foot quarter'd in this City on Durdent Down, which was grac'd by the Appearance of several thousand of the Citizens in Coaches, on Horseback, and on Foot, and the Morocco Ambassador, who was also present, was highly delighted with the beautiful Exercise of the Soldiery.

Thursday last being the Anniversary of his Majesty's happy Coronation, it was observ'd here by Ringing of Bells, Bonfires, &c. and at Night the Right Worshipful the Mayor, and the rest of the Corporation, together with the Officers of the Regiment, assembled at the Council House, where were drank the Healths of his Majesty and all the Royal Family, a Volley of small Arms from a Party of Grenadiers crowning each Loyal Health.

The Anne Pink, which sail'd from this Port in November last, being Homeward bound from the Honduras, is taken by the Spaniards, and carry'd into the Havana.

Colchester, Oct. 12. On Tuesday last was held at the Moot-Hall here, before the Right Worshipful John Blatch, Esq; Mayor, Mr. Serjeant Price, Recorder, &c. the Quarter Sessions for this Town, when the Grand Jury found a Bill of Indictment against Samuel Fillio, late an Apprentice to Mr. May, Barber and Peruke-Maker, for stealing several Pair of Buckles out of the House of Mr. James Thorn: He us'd to shave Mr. Thorn, who sells Buckles, &c. and whilst waiting, made use of Opportunities to steal what lay in his Reach, and when discovered, had the Impudence to charge Mr. Thorn's Apprentice with supplying him with the Goods, who bring under such a Uneasiness thereat, importun'd Fillio to clear him, but on the contrary the Villain, in an audacious Manner, offer'd to go before a Magistrate, and make Oath of his receiving them from Mr. Thorn's Servant; this he persist'd in for two Hours, when finding that Scheme would not screen him from Justice, he own'd his being guilty of the Theft, and that he had falsly accus'd the young Man; he also confess'd where he had sold several Pair of Buckles, and that others were in his Chest at his Master's, which were accordingly found there. He pleaded guilty to the Indictment, and was sentenc'd to be severely whipp'd at the Whipping-Post at the Hall-Door on Saturday.

The same Day the Mayor, Aldermen, &c. attended by the Town-Officers and Musick, went in a grand Manner, from the Hall to Bury-field, and proclaimed St. Dennis's Fair.

On Friday last, a Man was committed to Chelmsford Goal, for House-breaking.

Yesterday se'nnight, ended the Quarter Sessions at Chelmsford, for the County of Essex, at which two Persons were convicted of having extorted Money from several Persons, under Pretence of being ruined by Fire.

A Shoemaker's Apprentice in Chelmsford, was also try'd at the said Sessions, for ravishing a Girl of seven Years old, and giving her the Poul Disease, of which he was found guilty. And they were all three order'd to be publicly whipp'd on three Market Days at Chelmsford; pursuant to which Sentence, they were accordingly whipp'd for the first Time on Friday last.

Canterbury, Oct. 13. Thursday last being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, it was observ'd by this Corporation in a most agreeable Manner: The Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, and several Gentlemen of this City, met at the Fountain Tavern, where the Healths of his Majesty, the Prince and Princesses of Wales, and the rest of the Royal Family, were drank, with Prosperity to his Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land; and the Evening concluded with Illuminations, Bonfires, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

On Thursday last Richard Hatton, a Journeyman Carpenter, who said he came from Dublin, was committed to West-gate Goal, for opening a Chest of the Widow Scrimshaw's, at North-gate, where he lodg'd, and stealing from thence a Gold Ring, and 9 s. in Silver, a white Waistcoat, a large Silk Handkerchief, and a Stock; which he yesterday confess'd, after the Ring was found upon him conceal'd in the Lining of his Coat.

L O N D O N.

We hear that on Tuesday the 3th Instant, Sir Richard Musgrave, Bart. dy'd of a Fever, and Inflammation of the Lungs, at his Seat at Hayton in Cumberland.

Last Week Brigadier-General Honeywood arriv'd at Northampton, and review'd the Regiment of Horse commanded by Lieutenant-General Evans, which made a handsome Appearance.

Thursday last, being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, it was observ'd in that Town with Ringing of Bells, Bonfires, &c. as it was at Salisbury and Gloucester.

They write from Worcester, that on Monday last William Winsmore, Esq; a very eminent Tradesman, was sworn in Mayor of that City for the Year ensuing; after which the Mayor and Corporation, preceded by the several Companies, and the twelve Constables, (which latter, to shew their Regard to so worthy a Magistrate, appear'd in fine Green Cloth Coats and Breeches trimm'd with Gold, white Waistcoats, and Gold-lac'd Hats) walk'd in Procession thro' the principal Streets of the City, and return'd to the Town-Hall, where the most elegant Dinner that ever was seen on the like Occasion, was provided at his Worship's Expence; with whom, 'tis thought, near 1000 People (several of 'em Persons of Distinction) din'd on that and the following Day: After the Dinners were over, several Loyal Healths were drank with Prosperity to the City, and to Trade in general. On Wednesday Evening there was a Ball for the Ladies.

We hear from Bradford in Wilts, that last Saturday Night John Stockwell, of that Town, Chalk-maker, having reprimanded his Son, just come from an Alehouse, for beating and abusing his Mother, the barbarous and ungrateful Wretch fell upon him, and gave him such a violent Kick on the Privy-Parts, that he died in a few Hours after. The Villain has since made his Escape.

This Day the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor will hold the Second General Seal before Michaelmas Term at Lincoln's Inn-hall.

Yesterday died after a short Illness, at his House in Great Russell-street, John Jepson, Esq; a Gentleman of a plentiful Estate.

Yesterday the Right Hon. Sir John Salter, Kt. Lord Mayor Elect, was presented to the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor, at his House in Great Ormond-street, for his Lordship's Approbation.

Last Tuesday Night died at his House in Maddox-street the Hon. John Lumley, Esq; Member of Parliament for the Borough of Arundel in Suff. Colonel of a Company in the Second Regiment of Foot Guards, Brother to the Right Hon. the Earl of Scarborough, and to Sir Thomas Lumley Saunderson, Knight of the Bath.

Last Friday was committed to the Gatehouse by Sir Edward Hill, Kt. one George Slocum, a Blacksmith, for assaulting the French Ambassador's Servants yesterday se'nnight, and breeding a Riot about his House, and for throwing Stones, breaking some Windows, &c.

The Report of two Men having been killed, and his Excellency's making a Complaint to one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State upon that Occasion, is entirely false.

Yesterday Notice was issued out from the Lord Chamberlain's Office to all Peers and Peerses, that the Court goes out of Mourning on Sunday next, on account of the Death of the Landgrave of Hesse Darmstadt.

The Beginning of next Week 'tis expected, that several Twenty Gun Ships will be launched at Deptford, Woolwich and Chatham Docks, and will be soon after put into Commission.

As will also several Fireships, and likewise the Suffolk, a Seventy Gun Ship lately rebuilt at Deptford.

This being St. Luke's Day, the Harveyan Oration (founded by that famous Physician Dr. William Harvey, so well known for the Discovery he made of the Circulation of the Blood) will be spoke by Dr. John Newington of Greenwich, before the President and Fellows of the College of Physicians, at their College in Warwick-Lane; after which an elegant Entertainment will be provided for them at the said College, according to Custom.

PARALYTICON, seu Anima Nervorum
A Stupendous Chymical Essence, which infallibly
cures the Palsy, and all other Nervous
DISEASES:

THE very first Dose of it (a few Drops only) instantly penetrates the inmost Facies of the Nerves, and darting almost as quick as Lightning thro' the whole Human System, diffuses kindly Warmth and genial Comfort to the weaken'd Limbs, and all Parts of the Body, and affords immediate Relief in the most obstinate Palsy, and all Paralytick fecks, Shaking, Trembling, Numbness, Deadness, and Weakness, whether universal, or of particular Parts only, or whether long contracted, or of many Years Continuance.
And as the very first Dose makes an apparent demonstrable ment, so the continuing of it for a short Time as fully compleats a perfect Cure, not only of the most grievous Palsy or Debility of the Nerves, but also of their Cramp-like Contractions, Stiffness of the Sinews, and all other Nervous Complaints, whether that in Persons of either Sex, or of any Age, and whether contracted by preceding Illnesses, fast Living, hard Draining, long Courses of Phlebotomy, great Colds, or excessive Fatigues of the Mind or Body.

Words cannot sufficiently express the uncommon, the stupendous Efficacy of this great Medicine, as all who take it frankly acknowledge; and its vastly superior Excellency to all other Remedies, may be more securely rely'd on, for the absolute Cure of the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Indispositions, than the Coldest Cortex is for Intermittents.

It redresses all Disorders of the first Passage, cures an Aple-sies, procures a good Digestion, enriches the Blood, restores the usual Vigour and steady Use of the Limbs, and strengthens the infirm Joints, Muscles, Tendons, Ligaments, and whole Habit to a manse Degree.

It is also very pleasant to take, is comforting and useful to the Stomach and Bowels, and for Safety might be given to the youngest Infant.

It is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment at Mr. Rallie's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church, in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions in a large.

The Great Carminative.
A most famous Tincture for the Wind Cholic,

IN what Part soever lodged; for at once taking, and in five Minute's Time, it perfectly cures severest Gripings in the Guts, and immediately expels the Wind from the Stomach or Bowels (as it were) two Minutes.

For all wandering Pains in any Part soever, which are some Persons the Forerunners of a fixed Rheumatism, in the Gout (mistaken many times under the Notion of Spasmodic Ailments) this famous Medicine has not its Fellow, in having wrought Wonders in these Cases on great Numbers of People, who, before taking it, could neither sit, stand, walk at Ease; but were in intolerable Pain Night and Day, taking less than half a Bottle, were absolutely freed from their present Pain, and; by a short Continuance of the Gout, recovered to perfect Health again.

As for any Belchings or Hiccups, proceeding from Wind or in short, in any Case of Wind, it may be depended on as the best, safest, most expeditious, and most sovereign Remedy ever yet known.

It is sold only by Mr. King, Printseller, in the Palace near the Royal Exchange, and by Mr. Martin, Toy-shop, at the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland in Cranbourn-street near Leicester-fields, at 3 s. the Bottle.

By the said Mr. King and Mr. Martin is also sold for 1 s. the Bottle.

The Princely beautifying LOTION.
Whole INIMITTABLE VIRTUES and TRANSCEN-DENT EXCELLENCIES have gained it so much Reputation, that envious Imitators endeavour, tho' in vain, to imitate it.

It beautifies the Face, Neck, and Hands to the utmost Perfection, and is in the greatest Esteem amongst Ladies, for the first Quality. No Words can sufficiently express its Virtues; for it is not of the Nature of Paint, which puts a false and unnatural Gloss on the Skin; but is a Remedy that, by its Use, really gives a Lustre to the most Beautiful, by removing the fine Features of the Face, and is so safe, not having the least Grain of Mercury in it, that it may be taken inwardly, and it smells to, is really good against Vapours.

It infallibly kills Worms in the Face, takes away Freckles, Spots, Wrinkles, Pits, or Marks of the Small-Pox, and effectually cures any Defects in the Face, giving a charming youthful Lustre and fine Air to the Features, to a Demonstration.

As for such Persons as are of a swarthy Complexion, or troubled with any disagreeable Redness, Roughness, Morphea, Heats, or the like, it is not to be parallel'd; for it immediately smooths, clears, plumps, nourishes, and whitenes the Skin to the last Degree, and makes those Persons who before look'd haggard and old, to look young, beautiful, and fair, and, in short, it far exceeds any thing that was ever yet known, or made publick, for clearing and beautifying the Skin.
